Vice Chancellor's Note

It gives me immense pleasure and satisfaction that the 35th issue of the Newsletter of Bangladesh University of Professionals (BUP) is published. BUP is resolute to ensure quality higher education through teaching research and innovation in Bangladesh for developing skilled and efficient human resources which will keep solid footprints nationally and globally. The university develops its curricula for different programmes to meet the demand of the 4th Industrial Revolution focusing innovation and creativity through exploring knowledge. It also focuses on outcome-based education to fulfill the need of the country in complying with the Sustainable Development Goals and building a knowledge-based society.

This Newsletter recognizes the contributions of the BUP family that they made in accelerating the progress of the University. In reflection of these, the most significant events of the last quarter were- Disaster Management Exercise (DMX), Observance of Sheikh Russel Day, Seminars, Faculty Development Programme, Lit Fest, DEVTHON, Inter-University Debate Competition, BUP Career and Education Fest, Study Tour, Exchange of Views with Media Personalities and so on.

I would like to convey my wholehearted thanks to the Editorial Board for their untiring endeavour and heedful tasks in making this publication a success. I wish such enthusiasm would remain in the future.
